REPUBLICANS OF COUNTY ENDORSE PRESENT LEADER

Calvin Coolidge Given Full Support of Pontotoc County Convention

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

County Organization Passes Resolution Favoring Federal Court Here

Calvin Coolidge was unanimously endorsed for the presidential nomination by the Republicans of Pontotoc county in convention assembled at Ada Thursday.

A delegation of 12 was selected to attend the congressional district convention at Shawnee April 22 to select two delegates from the district to the national convention and also attend the state convention at Oklahoma City the following day to select delegates at large to the national meeting at Cleveland. This delegation was instructed to support the candidacy of Coolidge.

The following officers of the Republican county organization were selected: W. P. Chism, state committeeman; Mrs. M. B. Roddy, vice-committeewoman; James Lewis, congressional committeeman; Mrs. C. V. Gowing, vice-committeewoman; A. H. Constant, county chairman; Mrs. Dan Hayes, vice-chairman; W. R. Horton, secretary; J. M. Keltner, treasurer.

Following is the list of delegates and alternates to the district and state conventions:

Delegates—A. H. Constant, W. P. Chism, W. L. Whittaker, M. F. Manville, W. M. Haines, Tom Granger, J. W. Lewis, Mrs. M. B. Roddy, Mrs. A. H. Constant, A. M. Cummings, Mrs. Dan Hayes, C. V. Gowing.

Alternates—W. R. Horton, F. M. Snider, O. E. Scott, Alex Crumley, J. A. Durbin, John Scribner, Isaac Odum, J. A. Lewis, J. W. Beard, R. L. Rollins, Holiday Myers, H. T. Young, W. M. James, S. M. Richie.

The convention also unanimously adopted a resolution heartily approving the McKee bill designating Ada as a federal court town and urging Senators Owen and Harrel to support it in the senate.

Following is the text of the resolution passed:

"Whereas, a bill has passed the House of Representatives at Washington, D. C., providing for the establishing of a federal court at Ada, Oklahoma, and

"Whereas, Ada is now a town of about twelve thousand people, is a town of considerable commercial importance in this section of the state, is the center of much oil activity at this time, and is the center of population for a large number of Indians and persons who have litigation in the federal courts, is a town easily accessible for attorneys and litigants from a number of nearby adjoining counties in eastern Oklahoma.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the Republicans of Pontotoc county in convention assembled on this 10th day of April, 1924, do hereby heartily endorse the bill designating Ada as a federal court town and do hereby respectfully urge our United States Senators, J. W. Harrel and Robert Owen, to use their best efforts to have said bill passed in the United States Senate.

WOMAN TELLS OF CRUEL SLAYING OF COMPANION

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 11.—Detectives convinced that Mrs. Johanna Tell told the truth yesterday when she gave a circumstantial account of her murder of Charles Blair on a little farm near Killingsworth, Conn., left today to seek Blair's body. They had been supplied with details by Mrs. Tell. She said the husband shot Blair, hacked his body to pieces with an axe, secreted it in a cellar overnight, then buried it in a pit because he insisted that she marry him.

She was his housekeeper for three years. She is separated from her husband, a world war veteran and Blair was living apart from his wife who resides in Brooklyn with her 18-year-old daughter.

Conscience stricken, after a sleepless night, Mrs. Tell appeared at the office of District Attorney Dan McGeehan in the Bronx and told her story. She was held pending an inquiry.

REBEL AIR PILOTS BOMB HONDURAN CITY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Air pilots of the Honduran revolutionary forces have begun bombing raids on Tegucigalpa, the capital, and have killed a number of women and children.

Four bombs were dropped near the grounds where members of the American landing force from the cruiser Milwaukee at Anapalla were exercising, but dispatches to the navy department today from Rear Admiral Payton made no mention of any casualties among the American forces. Rear Admiral Dayton said the revolutionists evidently mistook the American sailors for enemies.

Commander Causey in charge of the detachment at Tegucigalpa was instructed by Admiral Dayton to make a vigorous protest to the de facto government and revolutionary leaders against continued bombing of the city as endangering American lives.

CONTESTANTS HERE FOR ANNUAL MEET

Literary Preliminaries Started Off This Afternoon; Athletics Saturday

The Annual Pontotoc County Track and Field meet started off today in full form at noon today with contestants in literary and musical events struggling to obtain the privilege of competing in the final contest tonight at the Memorial Convention Hall.

Preliminary contests started off shortly after noon today in the college auditorium and were slated to continue until late this afternoon before the hordes of contestants had been weeded down to two in the varied contests in the literary and musical field.

Preliminary contests in spelling, arithmetic, declamation and piano were all scheduled to be completed before tonight and considerable progress in the process of elimination was reported this afternoon.

One of the features of the final contest at the Convention Hall will be the competition between about 15 choruses from schools over the county tonight. Boys, girls and mixed choruses will compete and the event promises to be one that will attract considerable attention from the townspeople as well as the visitors from all parts of the county.

County Superintendent A. Floyd stated this afternoon that attendance and interest in the meet had reached a new high peak and that tomorrow would see a greater influx of students from over the county.

The feature of tomorrow's program of the meet will be the field meet, which will bring athletes from all parts of the county. The field meet is scheduled to start at 1 o'clock Saturday.

Jury Unable to Reach Verdict in Case Against McCray

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, April 11.—The jury in the trial of Governor McCray charged with embezzlement of state funds which was unable to reach a verdict last night resumed its deliberations today. The case was given to the jury at 2:22 p. m. yesterday and deliberations were in progress until 10:30 when the members reported to the bailiff they desired to go to bed. Judge Chamberlain granted the jurors' permission to retire and announced that the court would convene at 9 o'clock this morning and that he will await a verdict.

Persons who waited about the court house last night for a verdict predicted the jury would be unable to agree, with the probability that the division was to be in favor of acquittal.

OIL PROBERS ON TRAIL OF LOANS OF GOTHAM BANK

Three-million-dollar Loan Of Chase Bank to Thompson Is Aired

CLAIMED LEGITIMATE

Newspaper Publicity Man of Hamon's Employ Talks Of Convention

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Returning to its inquiry into possible oil company contributions to national political campaigns the senate oil committee today sought information about a $3,000,000 loan made by the Chase National Bank of New York in 1919 to William Boyce Thompson, former chairman of the ways and means committee of the Republican national committee.

Declaring that his client was too ill to appear, William Wallace, Jr., attorney for Thompson, testified that the $3,000,000 loan was secured by 50,154 shares of Sinclair oil stock but insisted it had nothing to do with campaign funds.

The committee then called E. J. Costello, Chicago newspaper man once employed by the late Jake Hamon, national committeeman from Oklahoma, as publicity agent. The witness explained that his services for Hamon were performed in 1920. He said he met Hamon at Chicago convention and was told "it was all fixed" that Harding was to be nominated; that Governor Coolidge was to be vice president and that Fall was to be a member of the cabinet.

"Did he tell you what position Fall was to have?" asked Senator Walsh, the committee prosecutor.

"No."

"What was Hamon to get out of this?"

"He said he would be taken care of."

Costello said this conversation took place "about 10 hours before Harding was nominated."

John Smith, Paris, Texas, business man, testified that Philip E. Baer, United States marshal for the eastern district of Texas, had told him of a talk he had with Hamon in which the latter said he was to be secretary of the interior under President Harding and that Baer was to be made Indian commissioner.

COUNTY TO RECEIVE AID TO CONTINUE SCHOOLS

Supt. Floyd has received notice from the state superintendent's office that Pontotoc county will receive approximately $17,903 from the special fund and not in sending in its estimates and which have not yet been passed on.

This money will be available June 15, under the terms of the bill appropriating the money and Mr. Floyd says it will enable every school in the county to maintain a term of eight or nine months.

The state superintendent has tentatively approved the following amounts for the schools named:

Francis, $1,528; Allen, $2,200; Roff, $1,571; Denny, $240; Lovelady, $240; Oakman, $410; Dolberg, $400; McCall Chapel, $350; Lula, $640; Fitzhugh, $580; Latta, $1,600; Colbert, $170; Union Valley, $1,200; Vanoss, $1,735; Maxwell, $195; Parish Chapel, $380; Center, $344; Steedman, $315; Owl Creek, $500; Ada, $648; Jesse, $842; Tyvola, $194; Galey, $481; Pleasant Hill, $512; Lightning Ridge, $106; Union Hill, $244; Rocky Chapel, $278.

Easter Sunday is the first Sunday after Paschal full moon.

"FRAME-UP," CRIES WHEELER, INDICTED ON BRIBE CHARGES

Senator Burton K. Wheeler (above) and Federal Judge Charles N. Pray.

"Frame-up" is the reply being hurled by Senator Burton K. Wheeler, prosecutor in the senate investigation of Harry Daugherty as attorney-general, to charges made against him in his home state of Montana, where he was indicted on three charges of unlawfully receiving money as a retainer fee to influence the issuance of oil and gas prospecting permits by the government. The indictments were returned in the federal court presided over by Judge Charles N. Pray, who was named to the bench only two months ago.

PRESBYTERY OF ARDMORE IN ADA

Delegates From This Section In Attendance at Presbyterial Society Meet.

The Presbyterial society of the Presbytery of Ardmore convened at the Ada church Thursday afternoon with a number of delegates from Ardmore, Wynnewood, Pauls Valley, Tishomingo and Ada in attendance.

The theme of the meeting is "Increase in vision, money, time and talents" and some very helpful addresses have been delivered by delegates and visitors.

Among the distinguished guests of the occasion are Mrs. S. I. Lindsay of St. Louis, field representative of the board of foreign missions of the church and Mrs. O. E. Cramer of Muskogee, synodical president. These ladies have stressed new methods, stewardship and training of children and young people and brought messages from the board concerning the work in hand.

Two societies, those of the first church of Ardmore and Ada made 100 percent on standard of excellence.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock a young people's meeting is scheduled and at 6 o'clock a young people's banquet will be spread. Every Presbyterian young person in Ada is urged to attend this banquet. A special young people's service will be held this evening.

Mrs. Orville Sheard entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. Whitman and Mrs. Burnett of Ardmore.

Today Mrs. B. M. Bobbitt gave a luncheon in honor of the Presbyterial guests. Those present were Meses. Lindsay, Cramer, Workman of Tishomingo; Saeed, Albert Russell, Tolbert and Miss Thelma Roberts.

Aviators Are Again Delayed in Flight To Circle Globe

(By The Associated Press)

SITKA, Alaska, April 11.—Warned of approaching storms from the Gulf of Alaska, the four United States army aviators who left Santa Monica, Cal., March 17 on a flight around the globe rested here today after their 300 mile flight yesterday from Prince Rupert, B. C.

The aviators were scheduled to hop off today on the 475 mile jump to Cordova, Alaska, but Maj. Frederick L. Martin, commander of the armada, upon receipt of reports from bureaus north of Sitka asserted no attempt would be made to continue. The day was spent examining the motors and making minor repairs.

COURT REFUSES CONTINUANCE OF WALTON APPEAL

Case Taken Under Advisement After Supreme Court Halts Delay

GEORGE SHORT ON JOB

Court Orders Case Called This Afternoon on Plea of Short

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The appeal of Governor Walton of Oklahoma from the impeachment proceedings by which he was removed from the office was taken under advisement without argument today by the supreme court. The court earlier in the day refused Walton's motion for a continuance of the argument.

A. R. Serven, a Washington attorney, asked that the argument be postponed, explaining that he was acting on behalf of counsel for the former executive. Attorney General George F. Short of Oklahoma opposed continuance and although counsel for Governor Walton were not present the court ordered the case called this afternoon.

Attorney General Short said the case had been advanced on motion of the former governor who now asked to have it continued on the ground that the court had not acted upon the motion to advance for more than a month after the motion had been filed.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—One of the bitterest fights in the history of American jurisprudence was brought into the supreme court when it reached the argument in former Governor John C. Walton's suit to set aside his impeachment by the Oklahoma state legislature. The federal court for the western district of Oklahoma had refused to review the impeachment proceedings.

Today the proceedings of the supreme court were continued by an effort by counsel of the former governor to have consideration of the appeal postponed. Counsel for the Oklahoma house of representatives and other defendants opposed the delay.

The appeal of the former governor was based upon the ground that he had not been given a fair and impartial trial in the impeachment proceedings. He alleged that the Ku Klux Klan and other influences predominated the Oklahoma house in his impeachment and the senate of the state in his trial.

The lower federal courts refused to take jurisdiction in the subjects on the grounds broadly that the question involved was political and not judicial.

Japan Lodges New Protest on Slash Of Quota Proposal

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Japan has lodged with the state department a blistering protest against the proposal in congress for further restrictions in Japanese immigration to the United States.

In reaffirming and reducing to concrete terms to the first time the famous "gentlemen's agreement" the Japanese ambassador advised this government that the exclusion proposal now pending appeared to question the "good faith" of the government at Tokio.

Phrases of unusual force in diplomacy were contained on the note which was immediately forwarded by Secretary Hughes to the senate just as it was approaching the end of its debate on the immigration bill.

Ada Amateurs Ready to Repeat State Championship Tune Again

(By The Associated Press)

The Ada Independent 1921-22-23 State Champion Amateur ball club will start their season Sunday April 13th, playing an exhibition game with Shawnee of the Oklahoma State League Sunday and Monday as their warm up numbers.

Wagner playing short and Paul Young on third are all showing their usual form, are a great combination and would be an asset to any team. On the receiving end, Josh Lee, who is playing his second year with Ada, and Young Clary playing his first term with the champions are in fit condition and both are good catchers.

ATTEMPTED DELIVERY OF PRISONERS FRUSTRATED

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—An attempted jail delivery was frustrated early today at the eastern state penitentiary by the deputy warden who discovered a tunnel leading from the cell of Louis Olstein and Harry Watson to within a few feet of the outer wall of the prison. The tunnel extended into the prison yard and probably would have been completed tonight when it is believed a general exodus of convicts had been planned.

About a ton of dirt had been excavated by Olstein and Watson who it is thought had been at work on the tunnel for more than a month with implements stolen from the stone pile in the prison yard. Disposal of the dirt was accomplished by taking it out in small bags and carefully dumping it into a drain pipe in their cell. Stone encountered in the tunnel was broken into small pieces, concealed about their persons and thrown onto the dump pile in the yard.

ADA TO BE HOST TO STATE MASONS

Homes Needed to Entertain Visitors at Annual Meeting Here

Ada will entertain the Grand Chapter and the Grand Council Masters of Oklahoma April 15, 16 and 17. Many of the best known men in Oklahoma Masonic history will be on those dates. Prof. E. A. MacMillan of the Teachers College is Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Council.

On account of the large number of visitors to be here it will be necessary for citizens to entertain some of them in their homes, according to an announcement by Bailey M. Bobbitt, who is looking after the details of the entertainment. The visitors will expect to pay for their entertainment.

It will also be necessary for several citizens to donate the use of their cars during these days, or rather to be in readiness to assist in getting the visitors from place to place.

Any citizen who is willing to help out in either of the above ways is requested to telephone Mr. Bobbitt, telephone 627, and give him the information.

It is not often that a city the size of Ada is selected for the annual meetings, and the Masons of Ada are especially anxious to entertain the distinguished visitors in keeping with entertainments in other cities.

FIVE-YEAR SEARCH IS FINISHED AT PAWHUSKA

(By The Associated Press)

PAWHUSKA, April 11.—What described as a five-year search ended last night near here when a Texas ranger from Dallas with a party of Osage county officers apprehended Jack Campbell, wanted in Texas on charges of murder and bond jumping. Campbell was arrested at a farm house six miles from here.

The ranger, whose name was known to local officers only as McCoy, declared that Campbell had jumped a bond on a liquor charge in 1919 and that two years ago he was charged with having killed a man and buried him in such a way as to make it appear he himself had been slain.

McCoy and Campbell were en route to the Texas penitentiary at Huntsville today.

M'GRAW CALLED TO TESTIFY FOR SENATE PROBERS

Former Oklahoma Republican Committeeman Declares Ignorance of Case

MILLER CHARGES UP

Committee Swings Back Again To Investigation of Film Fight Fraud

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The stay-at-home section of the senate Daugherty investigating committee went on with its hearings with Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, presiding in the absence of Chairman Brookhart, with J. J. McGraw, Tulsa, Oklahoma, banker on the stand.

McGraw said he knew Harry M. Daugherty "very well" and also the defendants in the Miller brothers Indian land fraud case in Oklahoma. McGraw was formerly Republican National committeeman from Oklahoma.

He had "general knowledge" of the Miller land deals, the witness said, but he had not been consulted by them in deals nor had he directly financed these transactions in any way through his bank. After the indictments were returned the Millers "talked" to him, he said, and he "always advised them to contest the cases."

One of the Millers after the Harding administration went in, he added, came to him with a view of getting Daugherty's attention directed to a report known as the Cox and Rankin report. Cox and Rankin were two investigators who inquired into the case, the witness explained.

McGraw quoted Daugherty as saying "I am going to prosecute these cases; there is nothing else for me to do."

Told of Harrel's Talk.
The witness told of a conversation with Senator Harrel of Oklahoma, whose attitude towards the Millers was "very vicious," he said, and the senator told him he "did not want those boys to get away with all those oil lands."

The witness said he later told Harrel there was no oil on the land and that Harrel went with him to see Daugherty and withdrew any statement he had made about it to Daugherty, indicating the case involved oil lands.

The Millers never "contributed a dollar," McGraw said, to any of his election expenses in Oklahoma. McGraw was defeated for renomination for Republican national committeeman by the late Jake Hamon.

"After McGraw left the stand the committee swung back to the Dempsey-Carpenter fight film deals. William Tishman of Oklahoma City who said he was now an "officer working out" of the governor's office, testified that he made a contract with T. C. Quimby of New York for the Oklahoma rights in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight films for $7,000. Quimby told him, the witness said, that "the matter was fixed up with the federal authorities" and that there would be "no jail sentences."

WOOD DENIES RUMOR OF HIS RESIGNATION

(By The Associated Press)

MANILA, April 11.—Reports emanating from the United States that he contemplated resigning were denied emphatically by Governor General Leonard Wood today.

"Nonsense. I have not thought of it," he said in a statement. "I am here for the purpose of carrying out the policy of the home government and I stand squarely behind the policy outlined by President Coolidge in his letter of March 5 to Speaker Roxas."

In a letter to Manuel Roxas, chairman of the Philippines independence mission, President Coolidge on March 5 stated that in his opinion the time was not ripe for the separation of the Philippines from the United States.

Johnson Declares Not Discouraged By Late Returns

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April.—Declaring his purpose to read the Republican party of "corrupt and reactionary control," Senator Hiram Johnson of California, candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency, said in a statement to the public today that he is "neither discouraged nor in despair." He made no specific mention of reports that his campaign is to be curtailed in view of recent primary returns favoring the nomination of President Coolidge.

"Frame-up" is the reply being hurled by Senator Burton K. Wheeler, prosecutor in the senate investigation of Harry Daugherty as attorney-general to charges made against him in his home state of Montana, where he was indicted on three charges of unlawfully receiving money as a retainer fee to influence the issuance of oil and gas prospecting permits by the government. The indictments were returned in the federal court presided over by Judge Charles N. Pray, who was named to the bench only two months ago.

PRESBYTERY OF ARDMORE IN ADA

Delegates From This Section In Attendance at Presbyterian Society Meet.

The Presbyterian society of the Presbytery of Ardmore convened at the Ada church Thursday afternoon with a number of delegates from Ardmore, Wynnewood, Pauls Valley, Tishomingo and Ada in attendance.

The theme of the meeting is "Increase in vision, money, time and talents" and some very helpful addresses have been delivered by delegates and visitors.

Among the distinguished guests of the occasion are Mrs. S. I. Lindsay of St. Louis, field representative of the board of foreign missions of the church and Mrs. O. E. Cramer of Muskogee, synodical president. These ladies have stressed new methods, stewardship and training of children and young people and brought messages from the board concerning the work in hand.

Two societies, those of the first church of Ardmore and Ada made 100 percent on standard of excellence.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock a young people's meeting is scheduled and at 6 o'clock a young people's banquet will be spread. Every Presbyterian young person in Ada is urged to attend this banquet. A special young people's service will be held this evening.

Mrs. Orville Sneed entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. Whitman and Mrs. Burnett of Ardmore.

Today Mrs. B. M. Bobbitt gave a luncheon in honor of the Presbyterian guests. Those present were Mrs. Lindsay, Cramer, Workman of Tishomingo; Sneed, Albert Russell, Tolbert and Miss Thelma Roberts.

Aviators Are Again Delayed in Flight To Circle Globe

(By the Associated Press)
SITKA, Alaska, April 11.—Warned of approaching storms from the Gulf of Alaska, the four United States army aviators who left San Francisco, Cal., March 17 on a flight around the globe rested here today after their 300 mile flight yesterday from Prince Rupert, B. C.

The aviators were scheduled to hop off today on the 475 mile jump to Cordova, Alaska, but Maj. Frederick L. Martin, commander of the armada, upon receipt of reports from bureaus north of Sitka asserted no attempt would be made to continue. The day was spent examining the motors and making minor repairs.

COURT REFUSES CONTINUANCE OF WALTON APPEAL

Case Taken Under Advisement After Supreme Court Halts Delay

GEORGE SHORT ON JOB

Court Orders Case Called This Afternoon on Plea of Short

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 11.—The appeal of Governor Walton of Oklahoma from the impeachment proceedings by which he was removed from the office was taken under advisement without argument today by the supreme court. The court earlier in the day refused Walton's motion for a continuance of the argument.

A. R. Serven, a Washington attorney, asked that the argument be postponed, explaining that he was acting on behalf of counsel for the former executive. Attorney General George F. Short of Oklahoma opposed continuance and although counsel for Governor Walton were not present, the court ordered the case called this afternoon.

Attorney General Short said the case had been advanced on motion of the former governor who now asked to have it continued on the ground that the court had not acted upon the motion to advance the case more than a month after the motion had been filed.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—One of the bitterest fights in the history of American jurisprudence was brought into the supreme court when it reached the argument in former Governor John C. Walton's suit to set aside his impeachment by the Oklahoma state legislature. The federal court for the western district of Oklahoma had refused to review the impeachment proceedings.

Today the proceedings of the supreme court were enlivened by an effort by counsel of the former governor to have consideration of the appeal postponed. Counsel for the Oklahoma house of representatives and other defendants opposed the delay.

The appeal of the former governor was based upon the ground that he had not been given a fair and impartial trial in the impeachment proceedings. He alleged that the Ku Klux Klan and other influences predominated the Oklahoma house in his impeachment and the senate of the state in his trial.

The lower federal courts refused to take jurisdiction in the subjects on the grounds broadly that the question involved was political and not judicial.

Japan Lodges New Protest on Slash Of Quota Proposal

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 11.—Japan has lodged with the state department a protesting protest against the proposal in congress for further restrictions in Japanese immigration to the United States.

In reaffirming and reducing to concrete terms to the first time the famous "gentlemen's agreement" the Japanese ambassador advised this government that the exclusion proposal now pending appeared to question the "good faith" of the government at Tokyo.

Phrases of unusual force in diplomacy were contained on the note which was immediately forwarded by Secretary Hughes to the senate just as it was approaching the end of its debate on the immigration bill.

Reparations Report Approved.
PARIS, April 11.—The reparations commission today officially approved the report submitted to it by the committee of experts Wednesday on the German reparations question.

Ada Amateurs Ready to Repeat State Championship Tune Again

The Ada Independent 1921-22-23 State Champion Amateur ball club will start their season Sunday April 13th, playing an exhibition game with Shawnee of the Oklahoma State League Sunday and Monday. As their warm up numbers, Dunbar of the same league will play here Sunday and Monday following.

The Ada aggregation has been put through two weeks of strenuous practice with possibly twenty recruits, striving for a berth on the club. Coach "Cow" Kaiser, under the direction of A. O. Green, Manager, has started weeding the hard work youngsters and by Sunday will have his cast selected to again win for Ada the state amateur pennant.

ATTEMPTED DELIVERY OF PRISONERS FRUSTRATED

(By the Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—An attempted jail delivery was frustrated early today at the eastern state penitentiary by the deputy warden who discovered a tunnel leading from the cell of Louis Olstein and Harry Watson to within a few feet of the outer wall of the prison. The tunnel extended into the prison yard and probably would have been completed tonight when it is believed a general exodus of convicts had been planned.

About a ton of dirt had been excavated by Olstein and Watson who it is thought had been at work on the tunnel for more than a month with implements stolen from the stone pile in the prison yard. Disposal of the dirt was accomplished by taking it out in small bags and carefully dumping it into a drainpipe in their cell. Stone encountered in the tunnel was broken into small pieces, concealed about their persons and thrown onto the dump pile in the yard.

ADA TO BE HOST TO STATE MASONS

Homes Needed to Entertain Visitors at Annual Meeting Here

Ada will entertain the Grand Chapter and the Grand Council Masons of Oklahoma April 15, 16 and 17. Many of the best known men in Oklahoma Masonic history will be here on those dates. Prof. E. A. MacMillan of the Teachers College is Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Council.

On account of the large number of visitors to be here it will be necessary for citizens to entertain some of them in their homes, according to an announcement by Bailey M. Bobbitt, who is looking after the details of the entertainment. The visitors will expect to pay for their entertainment.

It will also be necessary for several citizens to donate the use of their cars during these days, or rather to be in readiness to assist in getting the visitors from place to place.

Any citizen who is willing to help out in either of the above ways, is requested to telephone Mr. Bobbitt, telephone 627, and give him the information.

It is not often that a city the size of Ada is selected for the annual meetings, and the Masons of Ada are especially anxious to entertain the distinguished visitors in keeping with entertainments in other cities.

FIVE-YEAR SEARCH IS FINISHED AT PAWUSKA

(By the Associated Press)
PAWUSKA, April 11.—What described as a five-year search ended last night near here when a Texas ranger from Dallas with a party of Osage county officers apprehended Jack Campbell, wanted in Texas on charges of murder and bond jumping. Campbell was arrested at a farm house six miles from here.

The ranger, whose name was known to local officers only as McCoy, declared that Campbell had jumped a bond on a liquor charge in 1919 and that two years ago he was charged with having killed a man and buried him in such a way as to make it appear he himself had been slain.

McCoy and Campbell were en route to the Texas penitentiary at Huntsville today.

COLUMBUS, O., April 11.—Senators Wheeler and Brookhart of the Daugherty investigating committee arrived here at 10:10 this morning and left immediately for Washington Court House by automobile.

MCGRAW CALLED TO TESTIFY FOR SENATE PROBERS

Former Oklahoma Republican Committeeman Declares Ignorance of Case

MILLER CHARGES UP

Committee Swings Back Again To Investigation of Film Fight Fraud

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 11.—The stay-at-home section of the senate Daugherty investigating committee went on with its hearings with Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, presiding in the absence of Chairman Brookhart, with J. F. McGraw, Tulsa, Oklahoma, banker on the stand.

McGraw said he knew Harry M. Daugherty "very well" and also the defendants in the Miller brothers Indian land fraud case in Oklahoma. McGraw was formerly Republican National committeeman from Oklahoma.

He had "general knowledge" of the Miller land deals, the witness said, but he had not been consulted by them in deals nor had he directly financed these transactions in any way through his bank. After the indictments were returned the Millers "talked" to him, he said, and he "always" advised them to contest the cases after the Harding administration went in, he added, came to him with a view of getting Daugherty's attention directed to a report known as the Cox and Rankin report. Cox and Rankin were two investigators who inquired into the case, the witness explained.

Told of Harrel's Talk.
The witness told of a conversation with Senator Harrel of Oklahoma, whose attitude towards the Millers was "very vicious," he said, and the senator told him he "did not want those boys to get away with all those oil lands."

The witness said he later told Harrel there was no oil on the land and that Harrel went with him to see Daugherty and withdrew any statement he had made about it to Daugherty, indicating the case involved oil lands.

The Millers never "contributed a dollar," McGraw said, to any of his election expenses in Oklahoma. McGraw was defeated for renomination for Republican national committeeman by the late Jake Hamon.

"After McGraw left the stand the committee swung back to the Dempsey-Carpenter fight film deals. William Tishman of Oklahoma City who said he was now an "officer working out of the governor's office, testified that he made a contract with T. C. Quimby of New York for the Oklahoma rights in the Dempsey-Carpenter fight films for $7,000. Quimby told him, the witness said, that "the matter was fixed up with the federal authorities" and that there would be "no jail sentences."

WOOD DENIES RUMOR OF HIS RESIGNATION

(By the Associated Press)
ALANIS, April 11.—Reports emanating from the United States that he contemplated resigning were denied emphatically by Governor General Leonard Wood today.

"Nonsense. I have not thought of it," he said in a statement. "I am here for the purpose of carrying out the policy of the home government and I stand squarely behind the policy outlined by President Coolidge in his letter of March 5 to Speaker Roxas."

In a letter to Manuel Roxas, chairman of the Philippine Independence mission, President Coolidge on March 5 stated that in his opinion the time was not ripe for the separation of the Philippines from the United States.

Johnson Declares Not Discouraged By Late Returns

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April.—Declaring his purpose to rid the Republican party of "corrupt and reactionary control," Senator Hiram Johnson of California, candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency, said in a statement to the public today that he is "neither discouraged nor in despair." He made no specific mention of reports that his campaign is to be curtailed in view of recent primary returns favoring the nomination of President Coolidge.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THOU SHALT LOVE THE LORD thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.—Luke 10:27.

PAUL REVERE'S RIDE.

Mrs. L. M. Cramer, in the Dearborn Independent, throws new light on the famous ride of Paul Revere made famous by Longfellow's poem. While it does not detract from Revere's reputation, her account gives credit to others connected with the exploit to whom credit is due but who have been almost forgotten with the flight of time.

As this writer's investigations prove, two others also rode that night, part of the time in company with Revere and it was one of these who carried the word to Concord, the final objective of all three while Revere was captured by the British and sent back to Boston before he completed his ride, a companion escaping, however, and carrying word to Concord that the British were coming and paving the way for the running battle that cost the British so dearly the next day.

According to Mrs. Cramer the first rider who started on the ride that night was William Dawes. He was joined later by Revere and as the two left Lexington after spreading the alarm they met Dr. Samuel Prescott who joined them on the ride towards Concord. Shortly afterwards the three were captured by British officers but Dawes and Prescott escaped and reached Concord. Revere was not so fortunate and was forced to return to Boston.

Other important characters in the stirring drama seldom mentioned in accounts of the momentous events of that day were Capt. Tom Barnard and John Pulling who at the risk of their lives spied on the British until they learned of their plans and the route they would follow in leaving Boston. As had been arranged beforehand they communicated this information to Robert Newman, sexton of Old North Church who took a long chance on being shot or hanged by the British by hanging two lanterns in the church tower to signal Revere to start on his ride.

The writer of this account states that a few years ago a patriotic society placed a marker at what was supposed to be the grave of Dawes but no one even knows where any of the others except Revere are buried.

Mrs. Cramer states that Longfellow's attention was called to the historical inaccuracies of his poem at the time it first appeared, but the poet replied that Paul Revere was a more poetical name than the others and as the poem would be forgotten in a few years the others would get their share of credit anyway. However, the poem has outlived the histories of the day. Paul Revere's name has been heard in every land and many memorials to his memory are to be found in and around Boston. The public has accepted the poem as historically accurate, thus working a great injustice on the others who were entitled to share with Revere the honors of the exploit.

Press reports indicate that William G. McAdoo met with a rousing reception at all points visited in Oklahoma Thursday. His addresses were forceful and were received with approval. His admirers have evidently increased in number and his chances of securing the Oklahoma vote in the national convention have been greatly increased, judging from the reports of his appearances at several points on the trip of Thursday. His opponents will now have to get busy and likewise honor Oklahoma with visits if they wish to secure the 20 delegates from this state.

The resolutions adopted by the bar association and Republican county convention urging that Ada be made a federal court town indicates that Ada usual is up and going when there is anything in sight that promises to be of value to the city. Other elements of the citizenship will be heard from at the proper time and everything possible done to get this choice plum. Perhaps all things come to him who waits—sometimes—but it has never been Ada's policy to wait if a little hustling were needed to grasp an opportunity.

Hugo Stinnes, the industrial magnate of Germany is dead and this event may have an important bearing on the future course of the country for sometime to come. Stinnes was the most powerful man in the nation and his word would have carried the force of authority one way or the other in the acceptance or rejection of the Dawes report. It remains to be seen if the nation has another strong man who is able to meet the crisis that now confronts the country.

The latest controversy is over the question of killing off the crow population of the United States. Some say the crows do more good than they do harm by destroying thousands of insect pests, while others say the black rascal is a thief and robber and should be treated as such. We are unable to say which side is right, probably both partly right and partly wrong.

"Fabulous fortune at earth's center," reads a headline to a recent story of gold which some fellow thinks forms the core of this planet. Perhaps the fortune is there but it strikes us that the man who keeps his eye on the opportunities found on the surface is far more likely to get somewhere than the fellow who pins his faith on the center of the earth.

Another Convention Slated With Jubilee Of District W. C. T. U.

The entertainment program for Ada is not to be slackened during the month of April, a full list of conventions being slated during the month.

The district jubilee of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the latest in the form of convention to be favored on Ada. The W. C. T. U. Jubilee will be held here April 22 and will bring delegates from organizations from over six counties in this section of the state.

Preliminary plans for the entertainment of the visitors here on April 22 were laid at the meeting of the local chapter in the Convention Hall last Wednesday afternoon.

Local officers have been informed that district, state and national workers of prominence will attend and have a part in the jubilee.

Two Armored Tanks Protect Troops in Kentucky Mine War

PINEVILLE, Ky., April 11.—Two armored tanks from Covington today were occupying a position commanding the property of the Liberty Coal and Coke Co. at Straight Creek, the scene of a week of warfare between soldiers and persons who sought to prevent operation of the mines.

One of the tanks sets on a large pile of slate where gunners within will command a full sweep of the whole country. The other is also in a commanding position and guardsmen who were formerly exposed to snipers from the mountains and woods are now protected.

KIWANIANS PLAN AID FOR LEGION

Novel Program Starts Off New Civic Club in Existence Here

Thirty members and their guests were present at the Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Harris hotel today. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bonney, who are in charge of the music at the Methodist revival, favored the club with some good songs.

Robt. S. Kerr, commander of the Norman Howard post of the American Legion, outlined plans for entertaining the delegates to the coming convention which will be held here in July.

He also gave estimates on the cost of the convention, based on figures obtained from other cities who have entertained similar meetings and asked for the co-operation of the Kiwanis club in raising the amount. He was assured by the club that their co-operation would be forthcoming. Dr. A. Linscheid of the College spoke of our duties and obligations as civilians to the Legion and Legion activities.

A novel feature of the program was the cutting of a large cake by Dr. A. D. Coon, the occasion being his fifty-fourth birthday.

Dr. Sam A. McKeel, president of the Lions Club, assured Kiwanians that the Lions would gladly cooperate with them in any civic movement in which their assistance was desired, and hope that the inter-club relations would do much toward advancing civic and municipal projects.

J. E. Van Berschoot, international field representative, outlined duties of all officers and standing committees and thereby completed his work with the local club. B. E. Drake, a Lion from Shawnee, was also a visitor.

The United States last year issued about 15,000,000 ordinary postage stamps.

OIL NEWS

Howard Oil Company, drilling in section 19-6-7, north of Francis, picked up an oil sand this morning at 1410 feet. The casing is now being set, and the well will be drilled in as soon as the casing is in shape.

Ed Gillett, who knows the Francis territory probably better than any other on account of his many years experience, believes the sand will be at least 20 feet thick. This of course can be determined only after the sand has been penetrated.

SLOCUM-TRUITT

The marriage of Mr. Jim Slocum and Miss Opal Truitt was solemnized by the Baptist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. C. C. Morris, pastor, officiating.

The ring ceremony was used.

The bride is a teacher in the Stonehill schools and will continue her duties there until the end of the present school year.

The groom is an employee of the Sterling Motor Supply company here.

Both are well known in Ada and have a group of friends here.

ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN

All truant Odd Fellows and Rebekahs missed a real treat last night. The local Odd Fellows lodge, carried out an extensive program of work to a packed hall of local members and visitors from almost every lodge in the county and a class of visitors and candidates from Coalgate.

After the regular routine of business the lodge was opened in the First Degree and the degree was conferred on a class of nine candidates from Coalgate and one from Fitzhugh. The work of the degree team was excellent. They were in perfect trim and right on the metal.

The coat had been loose for a couple of days and had been eating the refuse from the sheriff's office and the candidates were husky and good natured fellows and the work was received with much satisfaction and applause.

The class consisted of M. R. Taylor, M. E. Taylor, C. L. Neeley, O. C. Fisher, F. S. Sowell, O. H. Matthews, W. T. Greer, Geo. O'Neal, S. W. Casey of Coalgate and Norman Hatcher of Fitzhugh. The class from Coalgate was accompanied by C. E. Russell, district deputy of the Coalgate lodge, J. M. Calvin, vice-grand, and Wylis Snow, secretary.

After the degree work and customary congratulations and speech making the Rebekahs in their usual hospitable style served ice cream and cake. This detained the crowd until near midnight. Most of the boys from Coalgate were over in cars and returned to their homes after the meeting.

ADA AMATEURS READY TO REPEAT CHAMPIONSHIP TUNE FOR SEASON

and 1923 who has won a regular job with the San Francisco Seals, will no doubt be missed, but in Sid Burnett, a husky hard flinging boy from Marlow, together with Bill Crawford, a local 180 pound, 18-year-old rookie, who like Burnett is a port sider, and Zip West a speedy right hander, Green believes he has a winning pitching staff.

Several new faces will be seen on the team for outfield work, all youngsters and fairly good hitters, but the three classed as regulars are Cleo Kirkpatrick the only outfield holdover, who last year hit the ball at the rate of .368; Lloyd Wanner, brother of Paul Wanner, the hard hitting outfielder now with the San Francisco Seals. Lloyd, playing amateur ball last year, clouted the ball to the tune of .480 and with a year or so more experience he is expected to make a name in the big show. Bennie Page the third regular is working hard, and like Cleo and Lloyd slashes the ball to all corners of the lot. Green is justly proud of his young outfield and says much can be expected of them this year.

Manager Green is of the opinion that he will soon have whipped into form a repeater of the last three seasons, his books are open and he is ready and anxious to arrange games with all contenders and especially desires to cross bats with the strongest independent clubs in the state.

GERMANY'S CROESUS DEAD, WAS FREAK FIGURE
IN WORLD FINANCE

that time Stinnes' fortune was estimated at $3,000,000 marks, which according to competent calculations, increased during the war and the revolution to more than 1,000,000, 000 marks.
Although Stinnes proved himself to be perhaps the greatest industrial organizer Germany ever produced, he was never graduated, so he had the appearance and bearing of a worker, and could go about in the clothes of a tinsmith or a miner without attracting attention. He was once described as like a piece of coal wandering about among his own coal mines.
His external appearance was devoid of pose, and he seemed heavy and solid. His massive head was set upon a stocky trunk. His black hair was cropped close, his face was pale and expansive, his nose was decidedly hooked, his eyes heavily underlined, and his beard as black as coal. A German newspaper became popular over night by calling him the "Assyrian King."
Novelty and toys were passion with Stinnes. He would be captivated in the street by the sight of a peddler's pack, and if he discovered a new kind of fountain pen or safety razor among the man's wares, his excitement was almost boundless.
Stinnes, like most men of action,
was a person of few words except when asked to discuss his financial affairs, and then he was verbose to a degree that tried the patience of his auditors. His egotism was no less pronounced than his juvenility
and his love of toys.
He once stated to a French interviewer that he was the "richest man in the world"; that he owned all Germany, and expected in time to possess Austria and perhaps Hungary. "They can't get along without me," he remarked with tragic gravity, then added reflectively,
"neither can England."
He delighted in producing a huge bank roll, inviting inspection of its size, then restoring it to his pocket with the proud revelation: "all mine." When he passed a newspaper office he would remark "that it was all his. When he walked into a big hotel he would proclaim that it all belonged to him. He was not in the least arrogant about it. There were moments, his associates said, when Hugo Stinnes even seemed sorry to be so rich. But as a rule he endured the fact with fortitude.
A social character, Stinnes displayed a possibility only when the size of his fortune was disputed.
He had one glancing argument. He would take doubters to one of his hotels and feast them royally.
"Eat what you like," he would say, "the place is all mine."
The magnate himself took no delight in food, had no ear for music, never read books, saw nothing interesting in nature, and seldom was seen at the theatre, although he numbered several of them among his possessions.
"My business," he would say, "so entirely occupies my mind that there is no room for anything else."
He owned his first evening suit in 1917, and was persuaded to purchase it by Albert Ballin, creator of the Hamburg-American Line. Before that he always appeared at dinners and banquets in what he termed his working clothes. He was seldom asked to speak in public,
for he invariably drifted into a tirade against the aristocracy which he hated with all the fire of his complex nature.
His only heroes were men who started with nothing and amassed fortunes.
"Look at these high-brows," he would say. "What did they ever do for Germany? They lost the war for us, yet see the airs they give themselves. I could buy them all up and never miss the money." This was a favorite extract from the heart of his Socialistic beliefs.
Yet Stinnes himself did not start with nothing. He belonged to an eminent Jewish family long in commerce, and received substantial aid from his father after completing his studies in a technical school. He was born Feb. 12, 1870, and from earliest boyhood was trained in the principles of commerce and trade.
When the World War broke over Europe, Stinnes was transacting some business in Gueltern. He read Austria's ultimatum to Serbia and instantly recognized it as war. He hurried to his Muelheim home, spent 14 hours in the telephone cell of his private apartment, and when he emerged all his enterprises were on a war basis.
Politically, Stinnes was an idol
of the German People's Party, formerly the National Liberals, which he was said to have financed after the revolution. During the Inter-Allied discussions on the German indemnity at Spa in the summer of 1920, Stinnes' defiant stand as a National Liberal was blamed for the failure to come to immediate terms.
It was at this conference, when taken to task for his arrogant attitude, that he electrified the assembly
with the statement:
"I have not come here for the purpose of being polite."
In the years that followed, however, he became more pacific, and urged the German people to adopt a policy of work and production, which he declared was the only salvation for the war-torn nation.
The most human side of Stinnes seemed to be domestic. He would spend hours in the company of his children, fashioning new toys for them and mending old ones or searching the stores of Muelheim for novelties. When residing in Berlin, Stinnes and his little girl would go in the afternoon to the zoo, and there the calculating magnate would leaper his voice with a note of sadness and tell over and over again about the poor lion that had to be killed during the war because food was so scarce.
The industrial prince of Germany cared nothing for luxury, and had no personal extravaganzas. He owned several motor cars, but usually walked or rode in a trolley car.
He was often seen running through the streets of Berlin like a school boy, but no one more than glanced at him, for all knew Stinnes and his eccentricities. If his presence were required at one of the mines, he might be seen plodding along the street with a group of blackened miners, or else clinging to a strap in a street car surrounded by his workers, who treated him as one of their number.
His apartments were modest, although he owned the hotel in which he lived. His country place outside Berlin was a simple cottage with a little garden. He bought no pictures or statues, for they were worthless, so he thought.
Hugo Stinnes had two favorite boasts. One was that he could buy anyone in Central Europe "without missing the money," and the other that he never had seen the former German Emperor, and wouldn't have turned his head to look at him on the street.

court. She has a population of about twelve thousand and ranks in commercial importance with the best towns in eastern Oklahoma. Ada is now the center of an active campaign for the drilling of oil and gas and new fields are being opened near. Increased litigation will follow from this locality in the Federal courts. Furthermore, Ada is a center of population among the Indians who have considerable litigations in the Federal court and they could save much time and expense by attending court here. Ada has three railroads, Katy, Frisco and Santa Fe, with a dozen passenger trains daily entering and leaving, thereby making the town accessible for litigants and attorneys in this section of the state. The nearest Federal court towns now are Ard-to reach from this section of the country on account of train service.

Court at Ada would be easily ac-

MRS. HAMLETT SAYS RELIEF WAS PERMANENT

"Five Years Ago Tan-

Health and I Am Still

So many people everywhere have testified to having used Tanlae with splendid results following influenza, grippe, operations, typhoid and pneumonia, indigestion and other troubles that bring on a run-down condition, that it has become universally recognized as the most powerful reconstructive tonic of the present day.
This incontrovertible evidence is being strengthened daily by scores of testimonials like the following from Mrs. H. T. Hamlett, 708 East 13th st., Sedalia, Mo.
"In 1918," says Mrs. Hamlett,
"the flu left me almost a physical wreck and it seemed that I would never regain my health and strength. My appetite was gone and I had headaches that would put me in bed. I dread even now to think of those awful headaches. Oh! I was left in a terrible run-down condition and all my efforts to get right again proved fruitless until I began taking Tanlae.
"After taking my first bottle of Tanlae my appetite returned and then the miserable after effects of the flu began to leave me. Six bottles of Tanlae not only rid me of my troubles, but my weight increased twenty-five pounds, too, and my strength and energy all came back to me. Five years have past now since Tanlae brought back my health and as I am still strong and well I can testify to both the immediate and lasting good one gets from this grand medicine. I also gave Tanlae to my little daughter, Elizabeth, after she had the flu,
and it proved to be the right thing for her, too. Tanlae is such a wonderful medicine and the tonic that I am always glad to praise it."
Tanlae is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million bottles sold.

"I was always nervous and tossed

ARAPHO ATHLETE OUT TO WIN PLACE FOR OLYMPIC

(By the Associated Press)
LAWRENCE, Kan., April 8.—
John Levi, Haskell Indian football star, picked as All-American fullback on many selections last fall, will attempt to win a berth on the American Olympic team which will compete in Paris next summer. The greatest Arapaho brave, regarded the greatest Indian athlete since the days of Jim Thorpe, will enter the preliminary Olympic tryouts at the University of Kansas stadium here,
May 30 and 31.
Levi will enter the decathlon,
instead of any single event. Coach Frank McDonald believes his experience on the track and his strength will enable him to make a good showing in the events of the decathlon.
The Indian has carried his 200 pounds of brawn over the 120 yard high hurdles in 0:15 2-5; over the 220 yard low hurdles in 0:25 2-5;
and has high jumped 6 feet. He has put the 16 pound shot 43 feet 7 3-2 inches, and thrown the discus 136 feet 8 inches. He has scored firsts in intercollegiate in the javelin and is a fairly fast quarter and half miler, although he has never competed in these events. He has treated track competition as an "athletic sideline."
"Big Jawn" will have his first taste of fast track competition in all-round events April 26, when he will participate in the pentathlon
in the Penn relays.
During previous track seasons
the Indian star has devoted his energy and time chiefly to spring football practice and to baseball, entering practically all intercollegiate meets with the scantiest of training and often with no training whatever.
With the Olympics looming, Levi will concentrate on the events of the decathlon alone, spending but little time on spring football practice and baseball. The coaches believe that by so doing he can better his records to a marked degree.
Levi so greatly values his amateur standing that he refused offers to tryout with several major league teams this spring, among them
the New York Yankees, in order that he might be eligible for the Olympic games and for football next fall.
The big Indian is in his early twenties. He intends to return to the grid iron next season.

tons receipts for the first four months of the new fiscal year were $2,710,000, the highest total for such a period since the beginning of the American occupation in 1915.
The corresponding period for the fiscal year ended in September, 1923 reach the total of $2,314,000.
It is estimated that if the remaining eight months of the fiscal year hold up to that period of last year, the total customs receipts will amount to $5,230,000 as compared to $3,313,790 for the fiscal year of 1922-1923. The moderate increase of five percent, which appears to be justified, would increase the total to $5,500,000.

AIRPLANES USED TO DESTROY INSECT PEST IN PHILIPPINES

MANILA.—A unique plan for the extermination of locusts, which have made inroads on sugar cane fields in several parts of the Philippines, has been complete by the plant pest control division of the bureau of agriculture.
An airplane to be used in scattering poison dust on the locusts in the breeding stages in the hills and tall grass, where men on foot find difficulty in penetrating. A hopper filled with the poison dust has been attached to the plane and the dust spreader, which is connected with the engine, can be controlled by a lever.

PAWHUSKA.—The "Million Dollar Oak" stands deserted on Agency hill.

The Osage oil lease sale this year was held in a downtown theatre and the historic old tree, under which more than a score of Osage lease sales have been held stands with bare branches on the hill, no more the rendezvous for "men of millions."

During the years the leases to drill for oil on Osage Indian land tracts of 160 acres sold for small sums, and up to the time when the first tract brought a million dollars, Colonel Walters always conducted the sale under the spreading foliage of the great oak. But when the crowds clamored for more comfort during the spirited bidding a downtown theatre became the scene of the auction.

NEW TYPE OF JAIL LOOKS LIKE PRIVATE DWELLING

(By the Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—A radical departure from the old type of jails with heavy bars and dark, ill-ventilated cells marks the new units of the Lincoln Heights jail under construction here. With few exceptions there will be no bars to mar the appearance of the buildings which will resemble private dwellings.

Chief of Police August Vollmer is responsible for the barless prison. He will observe the psychological effect of cheery surroundings on inmates.

Abundant exercise and fresh air are provided for in the new quarters. Men capable of working will be given an opportunity to do so and will be paid at the rate of $2 a day.

"WILD BILL" HICKOK "KILLER", BUT ONLY TO PRESERVE PEACE

Probably few men have been more misunderstood than some of the famous gunmen who flourished in the palmy and romantic days of the old west. It is often assumed that these men killed through sheer blood-lust but nothing could be farther from the truth.

There were desperadoes, it is true who slew for the lust of killing. But these men were not the true gunmen; they were outlaws and renegades, who daily risked their lives in the pursuit of duty as peace officers. They were Bat Masterson, who died in New York recently, Wyatt Earp, who still lives, Charlie Bassett, Bill Tighman, Luke Short, Doc Holliday, Chalk Besson and that most famous of all old time gunmen, Wild Bill Hickok, in which role William S. Hart makes his return to the screen, and which Paramount picture will be shown at the McSwain theatre today.

Wild Bill first won fame as a scout. He drifted farther west in the vanguard of civilization and one day engaged in a desperate fight with a notorious gang of stage robbers, the McCard outlaws. It was one man against nine. Hickok, despite terrible wounds, killed eight of the gang and then fought a duel to the death with McCard, the leader, with bowie knife. McCard died and Hickok went to a hospital for a year.

Hickok's fame was now great. He became marshal of Hays, Abilene and Ellsworth. Wild Bill never killed a man until forced to. To uphold the law he had to kill forty-six men. For a time Wild Bill worked as a farm dealer in Dodge City, that Masterson was sheriff of Dodge City and he decided the place needed cleaning up. He appealed to Wild Bill to buckle on his six-guns and help. One day the storm broke and the most furious gun battle in western history swept Dodge City. The peace officers, headed by Bat Masterson, an dthe outlaws headed by the notorious Jack McQueen, fought for supremacy and the peace officers won.

It is in his true light that Wild Bill's picturesque career is told in the thrilling and faithful characterization by William S. Hart, who has come from retirement to produce "Wild Bill Hickok", for Paramount release. "Wild Bill Hickok" is the first of nine special Paramount productions which Mr. Hart will make under the direction of Clifford Smith. In this picture the star is supported by such prominent players as Ethel Grey Terry, Kathleen O'Connor, Carl Gerard, Jack Gardner, James Farley and others.

CHRYSENE, Wyo., April 11.—Disposal of the bill of complaint of the United States against the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing company and the Sinclair Pipeline company, is sought in petitions filed by the two corporations in federal court here in answer to the government's suit against the Mammoth Oil company and these corporations for annulment of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve lease.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 11.—J. C. Walton, deceased governor, entered a demurrer in state district court today to five charges of diverting state funds.

He had been scheduled to plead this morning but was given until afternoon. The charges alleged that he caused his personal chauffeur to be paid from state funds.

WIFE DOING GOOD WORK

"I have been bad off with stomach and liver trouble and bloating for many years. No doctors or medicine helped me. On the advice of my druggist, I bought a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and I don't want to miss a single dose. It has given me more benefit than all the medicine I have ever taken. I feel I am doing good to recommend it to others." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gwin & Mays and leading druggists everywhere. Adv.

FLOATING HOTELS MAY SERVE G. O. P. MEETING

CLEVELAND, April 11.—Floating hotels on the cool waters of Lake Erie are a possibility contemplated in case the throngs attending the Republican national convention here in June should exceed present calculations. Alva Bradley, chairman of the convention entertainment committee, has notified committee officials in charge of housing that two steamboats can be made available to house several hundred people in case of need.

The housing bureau reports that there are probably 8,000 rooms in hotels available and 2,745 rooms in residential apartment hotels which will be available when their regular occupants are away for the summer. In addition, several new apartment houses, the largest to have 500 to 600 rooms, are under construction and expected to be completed in time for the convention. The housing bureau will endeavor also to arrange for rooms in private dwellings to serve last-minute arrivals.

Ranks of Veterans Of Union Army in Civil War Fading

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 10.—Less than a battalion of veterans of the Union armies of the Civil War remain in the ranks of the Oklahoma department of the Grand Army of the Republic.
Ninety-nine members have died or been dropped from the roster since last year, leaving a membership of 711, according to the report of J. C. Norton, department adjutant.
Sixty-four members died in 1923 and 35 were lost when their posts gave up their charters. There now are 44 posts in Oklahoma, a loss of four over last year, the report says. Five posts dropped out and one was reinstated this year.
The posts which dropped out lost their leaders and the other members failed to keep up their dues or per capita tax, the adjutant said. Many posts depend upon one man to do the executive work and when he dies the others are almost helpless, he declared.

More than 500 treaties have been filed with the league of nations.

Farmers' Column

Byron Merrill

The county poultry association was scheduled to meet at Pickett Thursday night but the members from the vicinity of Ada who attended were rather limited in number, consisting of J. M. Duval, John Skinner, Walter and Lester Lillard and myself. The pickett people turned out well and had some of the leaders of the association been present the meeting would have been a rousing one. As it was we discussed a good many phases of poultry raising and I found the people are very much interested in the subject. I inquired about the breeds of chickens in the neighborhood and found the Rhode Island Reds, Cornish, White and Brown Leghorns were the favorites. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have in times past raised many fine turkeys, but have lost so many as a result of reckless car drivers running over them that they will not try to do much this year.

H. G. Sawyer of Pickett has sweet potato slips already out of the ground and expects to begin setting them out within the next 10 days. He expects to use commercial fertilizer on an acre of early potatoes and try to get an early crop and the good prices that prevail during the early days of the season.

Fertilizer for Melons.

G. C. GIBBONS,
Extension Agronomist
Commercial fertilizers in Oklahoma have not generally proven profitable where the annual rainfall falls below thirty-five inches. East of that line it would be generally profitable to use commercial fertilizer under melons.
In the common sandy soils and especially the coarse sands, a good complete trucking fertilizer such as one containing 8 percent phosphorus, 2 1-2 percent nitrogen, 4 percent potash, or one containing 12 percent phosphorus, 4 percent nitrogen and 4 percent potash should give profitable returns. The rate of application should be from 200 to 300 pounds to the acre for profitable results in most cases. The nitrogen element stimulates vine growth, the phosphorus increases the fruiting and generally hastens maturity, while the potash content will add quality and firmness to the melon if potash is deficient in the soil.
It is doubtful whether commercial fertilizers will ever prove profitable as a general thing, west of the line of thirty-five inch rainfall. There will be seasons when the rainfall will be above the average and distributed fairly well for the season, when commercial fertilizer would become profitable to the plant and prove profitable and it is possible in early spring plantings that it would do so under average conditions but there is no evidence in the past to warrant the general use of commercial fertilizers in regions where rainfall is a limiting factor.
Of the single element fertilizers, acid phosphate should prove more profitable where moisture conditions allow its use.

Sweet Clover for Thin Soils.

The Illinois Experiment Station has found that a good crop of sweet clover turned under contains as much organic matter as 12 tons of manure per acre, as much nitrogen as would be contained in 25 tons of manure per acre and as much phosphate as would be contained in 200 pounds of acid phosphate per acre. Sweet clover is without equal as a soil improver. In addition to adding so much fertility the deep roots promote good drainage. Sweet clover will grow on a thin, sweet in-cultured soil, being a better forager than alfalfa.—Farm Bureau Bulletin, Pittsfield, Ill.

PICTURE PLAYERS SCORN DANGER IN REEL THRILLER

Performers in the cast of the William Fox picture "The Arizona Express," written by Lincoln J. Carter, which comes to the American theater today for two days, took all sorts of chances and had numerous hairbreadth escapes, according to stories coming from the west coast studios. David Butler, playing the lead as a railway mail clerk, was particularly subjected to a series of risky feats, along with Pauline Stakke, playing opposite him.
In one scene a train careens into space at a broken trestle and tumbles into a river swollen by mountain rainfall. In the mail car, Butler, as Steve Butler the clerk, fights his way out, saves a companion from drowning and then makes his way back to a Pullman car to save a girl. They leap into a river to escape the bullets of a band of desperadoes and eventually land some distance down stream. There, they board a locomotive and continue their flight pursued by the bandits in another wild engine.

At a tunnel, another train emerges heading into them and is brought to a halt just in time to avert a collision.

"It was just as exciting as it looks," commented Butler. "It seems to me that I inhaled enough river water in ten minutes to float a liner. Ordinarily, I don't mind the average current of a stream, but that water we jumped into was going faster than I figured and it was a job to pull out."

Evelyn Brent was equally as impressed by her experiences as Katherine Keith, the banker's daughter who saves her brother from the death penalty by pinning guilt on the actual murderer.

"I've played in many thrilling scenes, but nothing ever required so much action and quick performance as "The Arizona Express," she said. "For a moment in that engine cab, I thought it was too late to stop. I feared the scene had been badly timed, but the engineer throttled it down within just a few feet of the locomotive ahead. I'm frank to admit that I was frightened. The flood scene was another one

Fred Williams is being held in the county jail for further investigation following his arrest last night on charges of being drunk and generally disorderly. Williams was arrested by county officers who had been called to Lulu on several reports of misconduct. Further charges will await development in his investigation.

Koreans Return to Tokio
TOKIO.—Korean laborers, who left Japan in large numbers after the September earthquake, immediately after which hundreds of them were killed by Japanese in the panic of the disaster, are beginning to return to this country in search of work. The port returns of Shimomoseki, principal gateway for Japan-Korea traffic, shows that recently about 150 Koreans a day have been entering Japan.
